

Benefits of Earning the Girl Scout Silver Award©

- The Girl Scout Silver Award is recognized as the second highest award in Girl Scouting and the highest award a Cadette Girl Scout can earn. It is a national award with national standards, awarded by USAGSO-NA on behalf of Girl Scouts of the USA.
- You are recognized as a future community leader if you have earned the Girl Scout Silver Award as an individual or as part of a group.
- Although you don't have to do the Girl Scout Silver Award before going for the Girl Scout Gold Award, going for the Girl Scout Silver Award develops skills that will allow you to stretch in going for the Girl Scout Gold Award.
- You'll find yourself supported by the community while on your quest for leadership in many ways. Being a Girl Scout will open many doors.
- Having your family members pitch in to help with your project can be fun! It can be a positive time spent working together.
- Believe it or not, younger girls will look up to you when you earn that award. Are you prepared to help mentor someone?
- Learning to work closely with a group to accomplish your goal for the community can be a lesson in cooperation, leadership, and compromise. Teamwork is a skill that goes beyond the sports field.
- Working on a Girl Scout Silver Award is a safe way to build your leadership skills while acting on a community issue you really care about.
- You will build skills and expand your knowledge. Who knows what you can accomplish before you set the goal and go for it!
- You will create change in the world around you.
- Working on the project with friends can be a lot of fun!
